The Employment Support Network is a collaborative response to unemployment due to COVID-19 organized by JFS Delaware, Social Contract, Delaware 211, United Way of Delaware, Stand By Me, and the State Office of Volunteerism.

EMPLOYMENT SUPPORT NETWORK

As an organization committed to supporting individuals and families during unexpected challenges and difficult transitions, JFS understands the impact sudden unemployment has on your financial stability and emotional well-being. During these unprecedented times, JFS has partnered with Social Contract, Delaware 211, the United Way of Delaware, Stand By Me, and the State Office of Volunteerism to create this unique response to unemployment.

The Employment Support Network can help you overcome the challenges of job loss due to COVID-19. This free program connects you with reliable, trained volunteers, who provide emotional support and wellness coaching, financial management training, and access to appropriate mental health resources. You don't have to do this on your own!

Through the Employment Support Network, you will:

- ◆ Connect virtually with an empathetic and judgment-free support team for personalized wellness and career coaching.
- ◆ Form a one-on-one relationship with a volunteer through ongoing communication and check-ins.
- ◆ Access free wellness, financial, and career coaching to help you achieve personal and professional goals.
- ◆ Immediate referral and access to JFS services and community programs and additional support with social service navigation, mental health treatment, budget management, and tutoring services for individuals with children.

Participants in the Employment Support Network will receive help navigating and overcoming the complex hardships of sudden job loss through an empathetic approach to wellness, financial, and career coaching. All participants are matched with trained volunteers, who will meet virtually every week.
