District iPad	Personal iPad ONLY	On a Windows computer or ChromeBook
1. Make sure that the Clever and iReady app are on the home screen. 2. If it is NOT, go to the SELF SERVICE app and download BOTH apps. 3. Open the CLEVER app. 4. Click LOG IN with USERNAME and PASSWORD 5. Click LOG IN THROUGH ACTIVE DIRECTORY (NOT clever)-this will take you to the State's lighthouse page that students are familiar with. 6. Log-in student username and password (same as Schoology(). 7. Click on iReady. 8. It will ask you "Open this in I-Ready?" Click open. It will automatically open the iReady app. 9. Now, at this point it will probably come up with a warning: "This app wasn't built for this iPad or the iOS version, so some features may not work as well…" Click on the ARROW to continue anyway.	1. DOWNLOAD BOTH the Clever and iReady app from the app store. 2. Open the CLEVER app. 3. Click LOG IN with USERNAME and PASSWORD 4. Click LOG IN THROUGH ACTIVE DIRECTORY (NOT clever)-this will take you to the State's lighthouse page that students are familiar with. 5. Log-in student username and password (same as Schoology(). 6. Click on iReady. 7. It will ask you "Open this in I-Ready?" Click open. It will automatically open the iReady app. 8. Now, at this point your personal Apple device may also come up with a warning: "This app wasn't built for this iPad or the iOS version, so some features may not work as well…" Click on the ARROW to continue anyway.  A teacher completed both the math iReady and reading iReady as a 1st grade student using a district iPad and the test worked perfectly. When using an iPad at a higher grade level, a student may have trouble manipulating graphs, dragging and dropping things, etc.	This information is for any computer- district or personal- that is windows based computer or a Chromebook. 1) Go to the STUDENTS page on the district website: https://www.christinak12.org/students 2) Click on CLEVER 3) Click LOG IN THROUGH ACTIVE DIRECTORY (NOT clever)-this will take you to the State's lighthouse page that students are familiar with. 4) Log-in student username and password (same as Schoology(). 5) Click on iReady. 6) Click on a subject 7) Then click on the DIAGNOSTIC to start. 8) Make sure the sound is working, because it uses audio and video. 9) If your child encounters a technical problem with a question, such as he or she physically is unable to manipulate in the app, take a picture of the question, stop the test, and alert the teacher.

 A teacher completed both the math iReady and reading iReady as a 1st grade student using a district iPad and the test worked perfectly. When using an iPad at a higher grade level, a student may have trouble manipulating graphs, dragging and dropping things, etc.

If your child encounters a technical problem with a question, such as he or she physically is unable to manipulate in the app, take a picture of the question, stop the test, and alert the teacher.

10. Click on a subject
11. Then click on the DIAGNOSTIC to start.
12. Make sure the sound is working, because it uses audio and video.

If your child encounters a technical problem with a question, such as he or she physically is unable to manipulate in the app, take a picture of the question, stop the test, and alert the teacher.

9. Click on a subject
10. Then click on the DIAGNOSTIC to start.
11. Make sure the sound is working, because it uses audio and video.