

Advance Your Expertise and Connect with Fellow District Teachers in a Wilmington University Cohort!

Did you know? Wilmington University has partnered with your school district to offer an exclusive cohort program designed to hone your skills and take your expertise in special education to the next level. Students who complete this cohort will earn a graduate-level certificate in a specialty area of special education in less than one year.

Benefits of this cohort include:

A special 10% discount on tuition.

Waived fees for admission and e-portfolio/Taskstream account.

Ability to complete the cohort in less than one year! (5 courses—15 credits total)

Opportunity to collaborate and network with other teachers in your school district.

“ This model gives us opportunities to connect with our staff members, share resources, and grow together in our mission as a district to better serve our special education population.”

Courtney Casperson | Supervisor of Special Services, Smyrna School District

“ Creating district cohorts allows us to have rich conversations about the course topics that tie into relevant district circumstances.”

Rachael Rudinoff | Special Services Director, Smyrna School District

Space in this cohort is limited. Please apply by _____

University Contact:

Megan Schnetzer | Chair, Special Education Programs ✉ megan.c.schnetzer@wilmu.edu

Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation

Flip over for details about your district's cohort!

District Cohort Information

School District
Course Format
Certificate
Certificate Description
Coursework
Additional Details
For Details and To Apply, Contact:	