

Advance Your Expertise and Connect with District Teachers | Wilmington University Cohort

Did you know? Wilmington University has partnered with your school district to offer a designed cohort to hone your skills and take your expertise in special education to the next level. Students who graduate-level certificate in a specialty area of special education in less than one year.

Benefits of this cohort include:

A special 10% discount on tuition.

Waived fees admission and e-portfolio Taskstream account

Ability to complete cohort in less than one year (15 courses—15 credits total)

Opportunity to collaborate network with other teachers in your school district

“ This model gives us opportunities to connect with our staff members and share resources, and grow together in our district to better serve our special education population.”

Courtney Casper, Supervisor of Special Services, Smyrna Schools

“ Creating district cohorts allows us to have rich conversations about the cohort that get topics into relevant district circumstances.”

Rachel Riddle, Special Services Director, Smyrna Schools

Space in this cohort is ~~limited~~ limited. Please apply by _____

University Contact:

Megan Schnetzer, Chair, Special Education Program, megan.c.schnetzer@wilmu.edu

Flip over for details about your district's cohort!

District Cohort Information

School District

Course Format

Certificate

Certificate
Description

Coursework

Additional Details

For Details and
To Apply, Contact: